

Talking point: how has shopping in Seaton changed? Are there any shops that have been there for many years? What old shops can you remember?

Talking point: where did you go on holiday when you were young?

Talking point: Has the seafront changed very much over time? What was it like at the seaside when you were a child?

Talking point: what do you like to eat when you're at the seaside?

