Introduction

Seaton Tramway has trams which go from Seaton, Colyford and Colyton.

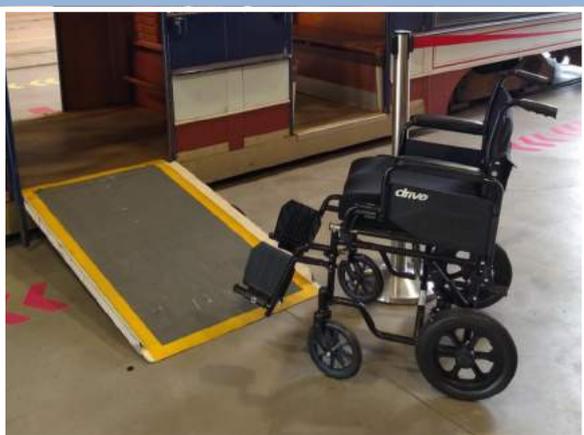

This tramway is 3 miles long.

You can buy your tickets from Seaton or Colyton.

You will get a wristband which lets you go on the trams.

There are accessible toilets.

The accessible trams run at least once an hour.

Trams

Seaton Tramway has 14 trams

The oldest tram was made in 1906.

The newest tram was made in 2007.

Their trams are smaller than other trams.

The pole on the cable powers the tram.

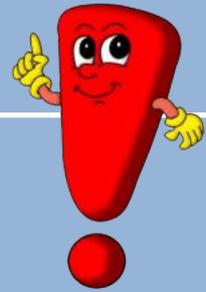

Trams move on rails.

History

Claude Lane opened Seaton Tramway in 1970.

Seaton Tramway Station's café, Claude's, is named after Claude Lane!

When Seaton Tramway was opened it was shorter than it is today.

People were still working to make Seaton Tramway longer.

History

In 1980 Seaton Tramway was finished.

This was when it reached Colyton Station.

Seaton Tramway used to be a railway for trains.

The trains stopped running in 1966.

Seaton

You can start your tram ride from the station at Seaton.

Seaton Tramway Station was opened in June 2018.

You can learn more about Seaton Tramway here.

There is also the small café and a shop.

Colyford

Colyford is the first place that you can get off the tram.

It is a small village.

There is no access for wheelchair users at Colyford.

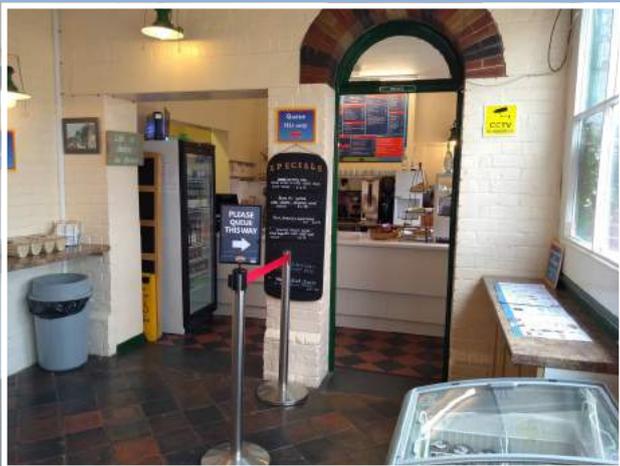

You can eat or drink here in the pub - The White Hart Inn.

Colyton

Colyton Station is at the other end of Seaton Tramway.

Colyton Station has a café called the Tramstop Café,

Colyton has flower baskets full of beautiful flowers.

How many flower baskets can you see?

Now you know .....

1. Seaton Tramway has 14 trams.
2. Seaton Tramway was started by Claude Lane.
3. There are 3 stops on the Seaton Tramway route.

We hope you enjoyed your day.
